CHRISTMAS

*A young mother, her eyes shining with fatigue, who is arranging her hair;
a father who finds himself alone with his pretty wife and baby, straightening the stable to make himself useful in some way; shepherds who bring cheese and perhaps also some curdled milk; sheep who look at their shepherds while bleating; a donkey who is eyeing his manger changed into a cradle;
an adorable swaddled baby whom one calls Savior, Christ and Lord:*

This is the manifestation of the goodness and the tenderness of God. This is the most fantastic birth in the history of humanity, the one which changed the face of the world!! This is how far God humbled and compromised himself with us! This is Emmanuel!!

TRUST IN GOD

On this final Sunday of Advent our scriptures focus on the historical birth of Jesus, who is son of David and Son of God, child and king, Jesus and Emmanuel.

Isaiah the prophet begs Ahaz to ask for a sign, to allow God to offer him reassurance of the survival of the Davidic dynasty. The king hypocritically refuses to "tempt the LORD" in that way (Isaiah 7:12), but the prophet foretells the birth of a son, an heir to the throne, who will prove the Lord's enduring protection of God's chosen lineage on the throne of David. The child will be called Emmanuel.

Matthew's reference to this history in his description of the birth of Jesus highlights the contrast between the faithless refusal of trust shown by Ahaz, and the complete trust in God shown by Mary and Joseph in bringing about the birth of Jesus Christ.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — You will be given this sign: The virgin shall conceive and bear a son (Isaiah 7:10-14).

Psalm — Let the Lord enter; he is king of glory (Psalm 24).

Second Reading — God has called us to belong to Jesus Christ (Romans 1:1-7).

Gospel — The son born of Mary shall be called Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins (Matthew 1:18-24).

SAINT STEPHEN (first century)

December 26

"A man filled with faith and the Holy Spirit" (Acts 6:5): thus Luke introduces Stephen, first of seven deacons chosen by the community for its ministry of charity, first to lay down his life in witness to Christ. As the church's first martyr, Stephen's life and death mirror the preaching and passion of Jesus, "the faithful witness" (Greek, martyr) (Revelation 1:5). Like Jesus, Stephen works "great signs and wonders among the people" (Acts 6:8). Like Jesus, when falsely accused, Stephen's face radiates angelic serenity (Acts 6:15), though his tongue, like Jesus', is a two-edged sword. As the dying Jesus forgave his executioners, even making excuses for them, then commended his spirit into his Father's hands (Luke 23:34, 46), so Stephen intercedes for his murderers and begs Jesus to receive his spirit (Acts 7:60, 59). How fruitful both passions! The penitent thief inherits Paradise; Saul, who consented to Stephen's killing, is transformed into the fearless preacher Paul. Thus Stephen challenges us to bear witness not in words only, but by Christ-like forgiveness toward all.

Training for Ministry

Come the beginning of next year we will start having regular training for Readers, Altar Servers and Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion. This is open to all current Ministers. If you are thinking of joining one of these Ministries, you are also welcome to come to get information. Requirements for each Ministry are below.

The training will include what will need to be done before, during and after each Mass. We will also go over the use of the Web Terminal and APP for the scheduling program.

Altar Servers

To be an Altar Servers the child must be Baptized and have received First Holy Communion. The Child should also be halfway through 3rd grade. Altar servers are needed on weekends for 5:30pm, 8:00am, 10:00am and 12:00 noon. You would serve semi-monthly and can volunteer for Holy Days.

Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion

To be an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion you must be Baptized, received First Holy Communion and been Confirmed. You will need to be 18 years old. You must also be in good standing with the Church. You must be aware of the sacredness of the Body and Blood of Christ. Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion are needed on weekends for 5:30pm, 8:00am, 10:00am and 12:00 noon. You would serve semi-monthly and can volunteer for Holy Days.

Reader

To be an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion you must be Baptized, received First Holy Communion and been Confirmed. You must also be in good standing with the Church. As a Reader you would be proclaiming the readings and general intercessions during the weekly Mass. Readers are needed on weekends for 5:30pm, 8:00am, 10:00am and 12:00 noon. You would serve semi-monthly and can volunteer for Holy Days.

Please watch for dates for training for each of the Ministries.
