DECEPTION

Indeed, it is not in human nature to deceive others for any long time, without in a measure deceiving ourselves, too.

--John Henry Newman

ADVERSITY

Adversity has the effect of eliciting talents which, in prosperous circumstances, would have lain dormant.

--Horace

Ask and you will receive;
seek and you will find;
knock and the door
will be opened to you.

ASKING FOR HELP

The Beatitudes praise the poor in spirit. One characteristic of those who are poor in spirit is their ability to ask for help; they know when others can provide what they lack. Today's readings encourage us to practice poverty in spirit by asking God for what we need. What could be more natural than to ask God for good things? God is, after all, the inventor of goodness and the giver of all good things. Asking God for help puts us in conversation with God. These conversations take many forms. The reading from Genesis shows Abraham bantering with God like a skilled negotiator, while Saint Paul's letter to the Colossians praises God for answering us even when we don't deserve it. In Saint Luke's Gospel, Jesus not only gives us words to use in our conversations with God (the Our Father), but also promises that God always listens to our prayers.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading -- Abraham bargains with God to spare the city (Genesis 18:20-32).

Psalm -- Lord, on the day I called for help, you answered me (Psalm 138).

Second Reading -- You were buried with Christ in baptism, in which you were also raised with Christ (Colossians 2:12-14).

Gospel -- Everyone who asks, receives; and the one who seeks, finds (Luke 11:1-13).
